

SUBMISSIONS REFERENCE GUIDE

ELIGIBILITY

- To be considered for nomination for the 2021 JUNO Awards, national music release dates must fall between the eligibility period of September 1, 2019 and November 6, 2020.
- Product must be released for national sale* (in stores or online for all Canadians to access) or via a recognized national music streaming provider. The first available consumer access, as noted on each individual platform, will be the release date for JUNO Awards eligibility purposes. Product released (digital or physical) only internationally (not in Canada) outside of the eligibility period, may be eligible as long as the Canadian release date falls within the eligibility period.
- Albums available for pre-order online no later than November 6, 2020 will also qualify. Pre-ordered online albums (digital or physical copies) will need to be available no later than November 20, 2020. Proof of transaction may be requested.

Product must be released nationally via brick and mortar stores or third-party online retailers.*

Product must be released via a nationally accessible streaming service that has paid subscriptions, full catalogue, or on-demand streaming. Eligible streaming services are Canadian versions of Amazon Music, Apple Music, Google Play Music/YouTube Music, Soundcloud PRO, Spotify, Tidal.*
